Ota Craftsmanship "Kamata Kiriko" Special Exhibition

[Dates] From July 14 (Sat) to August 31 (Fri)

In Partnership with : Kamata Kiriko Shop Forest
3-34-13 Kugahara, Ota-ku

"Kamata Kiriko", represents "Ota Craftworks". The original pattern, the "round" motif is added to the traditional technique of the faceted cut glass. This carefully handmade gem can be coordinated with modern tableware, regardless of Japanese or Western style. It is a modern and popular product.

We organized this special exhibition with the cooperation of Forest, producing "Kamata Kiriko". You can see the beauty of traditional craftsmanship born in Kamata, such as the displays of limited edition pieces, and the introduction of Kamata Kiriko's production process. We provide information about the "Kamata Modern" era, born in the Kamata district during the Taisho to Showa era, the Forest's shop on Kugahara Lilac Street, and tips about walking around the area. Please stop by our tourist information center!

"Kamata Modern GUINOMI"

"Ota's Homecoming Gifts" Exhibition / Sales

[Dates] From July 1 (Sun) to July 31 (Tue)

Once the rainy season is over, summer vacation begins. This is a season where people go back to their homeland or go traveling. Consider a gift from Ota to those you will meet.

At the tourist information center, we introduce and sell various specialty products from Ota ward. We also make assortment of gift boxes, so it is suited for gifts. Please enjoy Ota's specialty products, not only for your beloved ones, but also for yourself as well!

Tanabata Workshop

[Dates] Until July 7 (Sat)

Our workshop themed around seasonal change is popular among our tourist information center. Currently, we will operate the July 7th's "Tanabata" themed workshop. Write a wish to hang on a bamboo tree and decorate your tags.

Last year, many people wrote wishes and decorated the bamboo trees. It is free and reservation is not required so please join in with your family and friends.
